"On paper, Meaningful Use sounds so overwhelming. As a full-time advanced practice nurse, I thought how will I manage this? But, by working with CORHIO and carefully going over the objectives, we realized that we were already capturing a lot of the data that is needed for Meaningful Use. The best part was looking at the data and feeling really positive about the quality of care that we're giving our patients."

"CORHIO's interactive PCMH tool is invaluable – I can't say enough about the value it's brought to us and our ability to manage the application using it. It tells us what the standards are, gives us an opportunity to input feedback on where we are at in the process and scores us based on the assessment so we know where we stand. I can't imagine pursuing PCMH recognition without it."
